

Understanding “A Morning With the McFaddins”

McFaddin-Ward House researcher Judith Lindsley wrote the dramatic presentation using historical documents from the museum archives. Most of what is presented comes from the characters’ own written words.

Drama Quiz

Who are the characters?

When is the piece set?

Where is the piece set?

What does Mrs. McFaddin do?

How does she do her work?

What is the name of the maid who will press the clothes?

What is the name of the chauffeur?

Name a store?

Where did Mrs. McFaddin get her clothes when the children were young?

What mustn’t a young lady leave the house without?

What did Mr. McFaddin recently buy?

What is the saying Mr. McFaddin said about the land and owning land?

How does he make a living?

What happened to their beach house?

What did Mr. McFaddin have in his pockets?

What does Mr. McFaddin say about cowboys eating?

What is the name of the cook?

What is the name of Mr. McFaddin’s chauffeur?

Where did Tom drive Mr. McFaddin?

What big change of technology was taking place in the play?

What saying did Mrs. McFaddin say about cars — specifically the hood?

What kind of lesson was Mr. McFaddin taking with Mrs. McFaddin that evening?

What was Mamie doing that evening?

Who is Blink?

Where did Mamie dance the night before?

What’s the slang name for the dancing she was doing?

What was Mrs. McFaddin worried about — in Mamie’s date?

Where did Carroll, Mamie’s boyfriend, go to college?

Where does he work?

Who is Peb?

What is the worry of Mrs. McFaddin at the end of the show?

